

Copyright Transfer Agreement

The Doble Engineering Company will publish the Proceedings of the seminar “7th India Doble Power Forum.” It is the policy of Doble to own the copyrights of its technical publications including the contents.

United States copyright law requires that the transfer of copyright for each contribution from the author to Doble be confirmed in writing.

Please complete this agreement by entering the requested information into the electronic document or by printing the form and completing it by hand. A form must be signed and forwarded to Doble.

Please execute the attached Transfer of Rights. For jointly authored papers, each author must sign. However, the principal author may sign for other authors if they have specifically given the principal author permission to do so.

The signed agreement must be received by the Doble Engineering prior to the event, no later than 31 October 2008.

Transfer of Rights

1. The undersigned, desiring to publish the above paper (referred to as "the Work") in the Proceedings of the Doble Event, a publication of the Doble Engineering Company, hereby transfers his/her right, title, and interest in the Work to Doble Engineering.
2. Doble hereby gives the author permission to make and distribute copies of the Work for the author's own use, provided that (a) Doble Engineering's copyright ownership, and the fact that the Work first appeared in the Doble "Seminar", is indicated on each copy; (b) the Work is not used in a way that implies endorsement by Doble Engineering of any product or service other than its own; and (c) no copy is offered for sale.
3. The author agrees that proper copyright notice will be affixed to any new work incorporating or revising the Work, in whole or in part, pursuant to approval by Doble Engineering.
